

SHOW SHEET

Maine Association of Community Banks
Annual Convention
Theater Night – September 17, 2009

JERSEY BOYS is the story of Frankie Valli, Nick Massi, Tommy DeVito and Bob Gaudio who made up the original quartet of The Four Seasons. These four kids from the wrong side of the tracks invented their own unique sound, wrote their own songs, sold 175 million records and became millionaires before they were 30. The show is fast-paced and packed with Frankie Valli and The Four Seasons' greatest hits. Innovative staging, crackling repartee, and seamless scene changes laced with legendary "Joisey" profanity make for a great evening of entertainment. Shubert Theater.

BLUE MAN GROUP present wildly popular theatrical shows and concerts which combine music, comedy and multimedia theatrics to produce a totally unique form of entertainment. The Blue Men are a curious trio of wordless humanoid aliens whose playfully ingenious antics are exuberantly messy and thunderously noisy. Heads coated in cobalt blue greasepaint, clad in anonymous black jumpsuits, the Blue Men remain largely expressionless, conveying curiosity and wonder and although earless, they respond to sounds from the audience. This is experimental theater made fun and accessible. Everything about the show is surprising. It will leave you grinning long after you leave the theater. Charles Playhouse

SHEAR MADNESS is an interactive whodunit where the audience gets to solve the crime. The play, set in a hairstyling salon, involves the murder of landlady Isabel Czerny who lives above the shop. Each of the actors has a reason to do her in. The audience gets involved in the action by questioning the actors and attempting to solve the crime. This production has run for more than 25 years and is the longest running play in the history of the American Theater. Charles Playhouse